

Ogontz Choral Workshop with David Hill

Ogontz Camp ~ Lyman, New Hampshire

August 7 - 12, 2022

Enjoy a Unique Choral Experience in a Beautiful Mountain Setting

Now in its 33rd season, the Ogontz Choral Workshop offers an extraordinary opportunity for singers, church musicians, and choral conductors to study choral repertoire with some of the world's leading choral directors. Hosts George and Lynn Kent invite you to sing, relax, and enjoy delicious food at an intimate rustic retreat in the White Mountains.

This year's repertoire includes:

Ralph Vaughan Williams, in celebration of the 150th year of his birth
Toward The Unknown Region (1907), a remarkable marriage of music and Walt Whitman's text.

Mass in g minor (1921), a distinctly English and deeply spiritual mass in five movements.

Johannes Brahms

Vier Quartette, Op. 92 (1884), a setting of four secular poems by Goethe, Daumer, Allmers, and Hebbel, demonstrating the composer's mastery of lyrical melody and romantic moods.

Originally directed by Sir David Willcocks through the auspices of the Chorus of Westerly, RI, this event continues under the direction of David Hill, who is widely respected as a conductor throughout the UK and Europe. He currently directs London's Bach Choir and Yale's Schola Cantorum. Hill is the recipient of the Royal College of Organists' highest honor, the RCO Medal, and was appointed Member of the Order of the British Empire (MBE) in 2019.

Paula Rockwell, a professional voice clinician on the faculty at Acadia University in her native Nova Scotia, provides master classes, instruction in vocal technique, and a solo recital. Paula is a dynamic teacher who receives rave reviews by all who attend.

Note: Thanks to an award from Choral Arts New England, we are offering several $400 grants to K-12 music teachers early in their careers.
