

Choral Workshop with David Hill

Ogontz Camp ~ Lyman, New Hampshire

August 7 - 13, 2023

Enjoy a Unique Choral Experience in a Beautiful Mountain Setting

Now in its 34th season, the Ogontz Choral Workshop offers an extraordinary opportunity for singers, church musicians, and choral conductors to study choral repertoire with some of the world's leading choral directors. Hosts George and Lynn Kent invite you to sing, relax, and enjoy delicious food at an intimate rustic retreat in the White Mountains.

This year's featured masterwork:

J.S. Bach's Mass in b minor

This event, originally directed by Sir David Willcocks through the auspices of the Chorus of Westerly (RI), continues under the leadership of David Hill, who is widely respected as a conductor throughout the UK and Europe. He currently directs London's Bach Choir and Yale University's Schola Cantorum. Hill is the recipient of the Royal College of Organists' highest honor, the RCO Medal, and was appointed Member of the Order of the British Empire (MBE) in 2019.

Paula Rockwell, a professional voice clinician on the faculty at Acadia University in her native Nova Scotia, will provide master classes, instruction in vocal technique, and a solo recital. Paula is a dynamic teacher who receives rave reviews by all who attend.

Note: Thanks to the generosity of the 2022 Workshop participants, we are offering a number of full workshop scholarships to full-time students who are pursuing (or about to pursue) a degree in Music Education or another music-related field.
